

LUCIE THERRIEN has enjoyed a lifelong musical career. She grew up in the Province of Québec, establishing a career when she moved to New England, U.S.A., as a young adult. French-Canadian music and traditions are her signature, coupled with her own expressive creativity. She has published many CDs, DVDs, a songbook and researches, performed over five continents, and won numerous awards from the NHSCA, a state agency of the National Endowment for the Arts.

The book has three distinct parts: Mémoire glimpses, written in English poetry (prose and/or rhyming style), with a French cachet, chronicling the critical events that paved her life: the inner struggles brought on by her cultural, linguistic and national duality; events following her crossing of the border; surviving crises; illness; and challenges, both as a young girl and as a woman. It details how she carved a unique niche in an unusual, challenging and competitive career, in French, in an English speaking country – a veritable tour de force. Traveling the world as a single woman entertainer, she encountered danger and joy, and had to make difficult choices when it came to relationships. Traditions: French-Canadian gives an overview of the history of feasts, recipes, dances, and games she was brought up with. Songs & Poems includes the lyrics and poetry recorded on the CD (included).

“Special accolades to noted singer songwriter Lucie Therrien.” Senator Judd Gregg, Washington, DC

“Once again, your efforts have allowed me to retain an incredible American treasure, a keepsake and a personal heritage both profound and dear to me.” R. W. Harriman, a fan

“It is my distinct pleasure to congratulate you on being invited to represent New Hampshire at the 1999 Smithsonian Folklife Festival, Washington, DC.” Jean Shaheen, former governor of New Hampshire

“I am very familiar with your musical talent, and your wonderful reputation. You make me, as a francophone, proud!” Steve Marchand, former mayor of Portsmouth, New Hampshire

“Il n’y a pas que Céline Dion qui fasse carrière au Etats-Unis...Lucie y mène une carrière depuis plusieurs années.” Le Journal de Québec

“La qualité de ton talent, la beauté, sensibilité, et chaleur de ton texte m’ont vraiment touché.” Dr. Testud, France-Louisiane Franco-Américaine (FL/FA), Paris
